User Guide

Abstract

This experimental phase release of the Scholacity Web Application User Guide is intended to provide a high-level overview of the intended workflow for the course selection and registration planning that this application was designed to enable.

WELCOME

Welcome to the experimental phase of this project, entitled “Reducing Cognitive Load in the Course Selection Process to Facilitate Lifelong Learning.” Thank you for your participation.

This brief user’s manual for the Scholacity Web application is intended to help you navigate the system. The Scholacity Web Application is very simple at this point, and essentially enables you to:

- Select one or more learning outcomes that are of interest to you,
- View and rate course recommendations that the system will generate based on your learning outcome selections,
- Move recommended courses into your “Registration Planner” or Shopping Cart.

If you chose to follow through and register for the course, then the process will be the same as before but there is a “How to Register” button you can select to remind you of the registration Website and phone number.

OVERVIEW OF INTENDED WORKFLOW

Here is an overview of the intended workflow.

GETTING STARTED

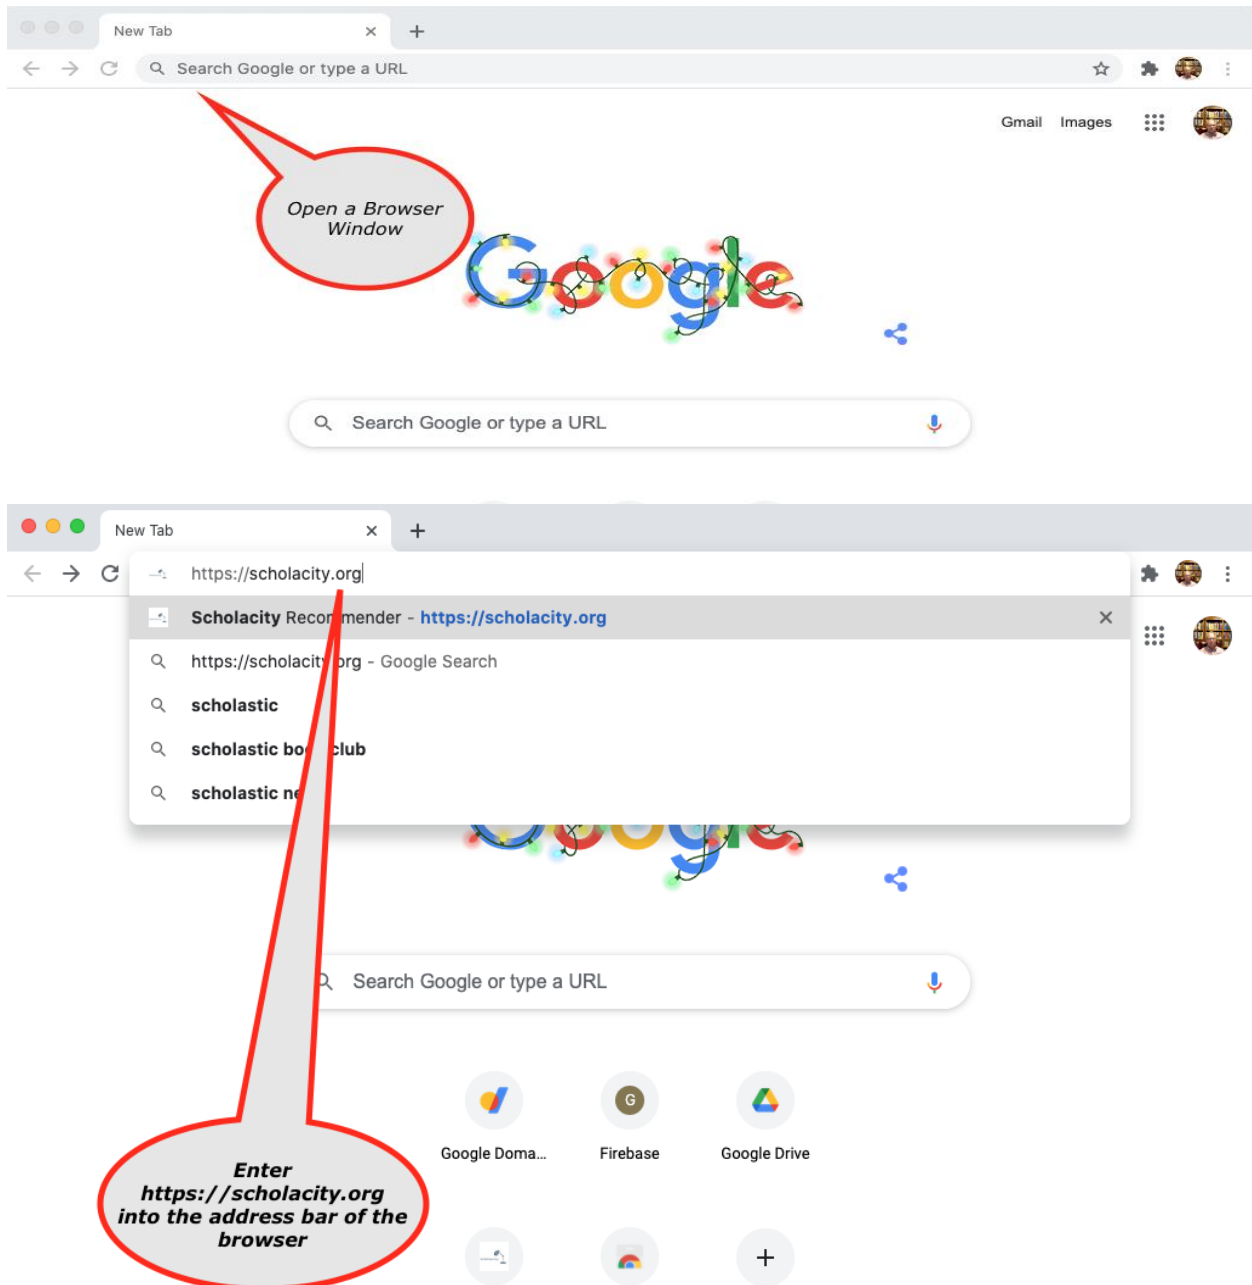

Clearing Cache on Mobile Devices

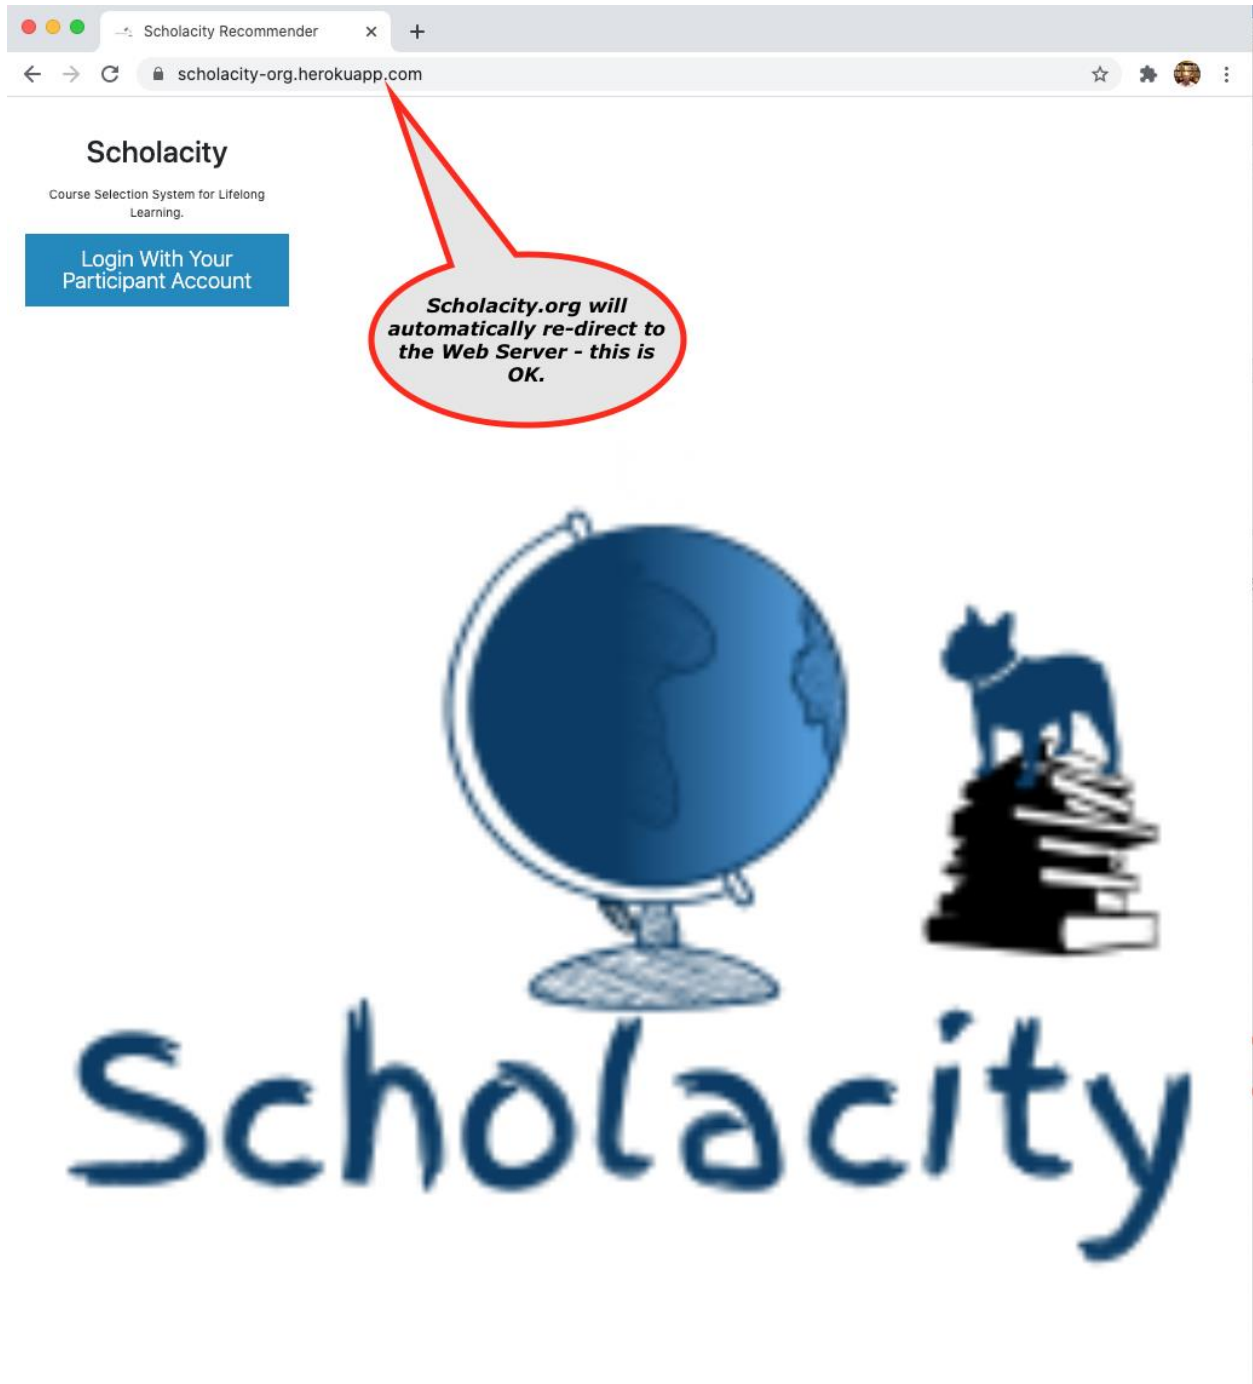

If you are working on a mobile device, such as an iPhone, iPad, or Android Device (phone, Kindle Fire, etc) then before you attempt to log in to this application you must clear your cache. Otherwise, Google Authentication will attempt to log you in to the Scholacity Web application using the Google Account with which you last logged into a site, such as your personal UWF email account. The Scholacity Web application will not allow you to log in with anything other than your participant account – this is to ensure your anonymity during this experiment – however Google Authentication is not sophisticated enough to pick up on the failure to log in with the cached account and so will simply keep attempting to use the same existing login. If you are going to log in to Scholacity on a mobile device, please consult Appendix A (iPhone) or Appendix B (Android) as appropriate for instructions on clearing your cache before proceeding.

Navigating to the Web Site

To use the Scholacity Web Application to select your courses, simply open up a browser on either your desktop or a mobile device and in the address bar of the browser enter:

<http://scholacity.org>

Logging In

Click the Login button, labeled “Login with your Participant Account.” You must log in with your Participant account. Otherwise, the system will immediately log you out and remind you to use your assigned participant account.

NAVIGATING THE MENU

Now that you have successfully logged in to the Scholacity Web Application, you must select the Menu to navigate the system.

The first step in the workflow is the “My Interests” menu option. Here you will find selectable lists of stated Learning Outcomes, grouped by Knowledge Area.

VIEWING AND SELECTING LEARNING OUTCOMES

Simply click on a Knowledge Area, such as “Arts and Literature”, to expand it and view the Learning Outcomes within that domain.

Then you may select as any or all Learning Outcomes that are of interest.

Scholacity Recommender x +

VIEWING COURSE RECOMMENDATIONS

Once you have selected one or more of the stated Learning Outcomes from “My Interests”, the system will generate a set of course recommendations for you – based on those selections.

In order to view your recommendations, select the Menu and navigate to “My Recommendations.”

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `scholacity-org.herokuapp.com/plannerDashboard`. The page features a blue header with the "Scholacity" logo. On the left, a navigation menu lists several options: Home, My Interests, My Recommendations, My Courses, How To Use, and Log Out. A red callout bubble points to the "My Recommendations" menu item, containing the text: "Select the Menu, then navigate to 'My Recommendations' to view your recommendations." The main content area displays a table of course recommendations. The table has a header row with the title "Learning Outcome". Below the header, several rows of course descriptions are visible, including topics like Zoom for virtual meetings, tax-advantaged investments, COVID-19 crisis protection, Medicare fraud cases, cash management strategies, Artificial Intelligence, and the Triumph Gulf Coast organization.

Zoom Café - Session #2

Welcome to the Zoom Café Session #2! This Zoom meeting is an opportunity for you to casually try out Zoom. Whether you are a first-time participant or a seasoned user, this no-pressure Zoom meeting is your opportunity to get comfortable with the virtual meeting platform. Before you join class, please make sure your internet connection is stable, your camera and microphone are working, and that you are in a video-friendly setting. Grab a drink, perhaps some wine, and click the Zoom link to begin. We will be going over other tools and general practices during the meeting. Looking forward to seeing you there! (The Zoom link will be provided within your registration email. Save it for future use to join the class.)

Course 2: Short Fiction Master: Louis L'Amour, Prolific Voice of The American West - 3 Sessions

With more than 120 titles still in print, Louis L'Amour is recognized the world over as one of the most prolific and popular American authors in history. Though he met with phenomenal commercial success in every genre he tried, the form that put him on the map was the short story. The Wall Street Journal compared him with Jack London and Robert Louis Stevenson. Some find his work a one dimensional, romanticized and untrue rendering of the American West. Others treasure shelves of his books. Wherever you fall on this continuum — join us for a rollicking read of some of his best stories, including one or two of the first Hop-Along Cassidy series. We will also spend some time exploring contemporary Western voices such as Ivan Doig, Cormac McCarthy and Annie Proulx.

HOW TO USE – MENU OPTION

Scholacity Menu Options

Scholacity - Scholarship and Tenacity - the pursuit of Lifelong Learning.

My Interests menu option takes you to a page from which you may select, by check box, one or more Learning Outcomes that are of interest. These Learning Outcomes are derived from the course descriptions in the UWF Leisure Learning Course Catalog for the upcoming semester, and are grouped by Knowledge Area.

My Recommendations menu option takes you to a page containing the recommendations made by the application based on the Learning Outcomes that you have selected in My Interests. Please click the Rating button and rate the recommendation using the provided Star Rating Scale. If you plan to register for the recommended course please also select Register Button and then select the Confirm Register Button on the modal confirmation dialog. You may also Remove a recommendation, once you have rated it, by similarly using the Remove Button.

My Courses menu option takes you to a page containing the courses for which you plan to register. Please click the Rating button and rate the recommendation using the provided Star Rating Scale. You may also Remove a course if you change your mind, once you have rated it, by using the Remove Button and confirming the removal on the confirmation modal dialog.
